

FRENCH RETREAT
A CATASTROPHE.Lose Heavily in Retirement from Soissons Field.Von Kluck's Counter Stroke Proves Successful.Many Guns are Captured by Victorious Germans.

BEFORE SOISSONS, Jan. 11 (by courier to Berlin, Jan. 10, via London, Jan. 11, 11:55 a.m.).—At the headquarters of a certain German army yesterday evening, Gen. Von Kluck and his staff celebrated the battle and their success at Soissons in typical German military fashion, with a simple soldiers' meal, a bowl of punch brought by the expert hands of Von Kluck himself, a graceful little speech by the general and a silent toast to the dead—both French and German.

The earth was still dripping on the graves of the fallen. So many men perished during the eight days of the bitter struggle for the heights across the river from Soissons that today, the fourth after the close of the battle, the plateau and gorge are still strewn thickly with dead, although 4000 members of the Landsturm have been engaged without a pause in clearing up the battlefield.

Most of the German dead have been given to the earth, but French infantrymen, in their fear to be seen in red and blue uniforms, earth-dusted, French, colonial, Alpine riflemen and bearded territorials, still are sprawling in attitudes along the heights, along the deep-cut gorge of the plateau and across the flat valley bed on the north shore of the Aisne.

The battle of Soissons, so-called in default of a better name, although it really was fought across the river from that city, was a highly engaged and the extent of the loss, would rank with Bull Run or Antietam of the Civil War or with Tannenberg of the Franco-Russian War, but in this war it places as an incident in the campaign worthy only of passing mention in the official reports.

No newspaper description of the battle has been written from the German side. The Associated Press representative was the first and only to inspect the battlefield and have opportunity to supplement the official reports with details gathered on the spot.

The results of the German success are regarded as highly important. The French were expelled from the heights north of the Aisne—vantage ground from which they had hoped to launch a successful attack along the big elbow in the German line—and driven across the river, which now runs as a high wall at many places overlooking its banks between the two armies.

The French retain a foothold north of the river only at one point, at Paul—where the bridge from Soissons crosses, and held this apparently on sufferance, since the Germans have completely commanded the German artillery on the heights.

The river at this time forms an effective barrier to any offensive of the French, and the German army has been able to bring up its guns from the heights and to bombard the French positions from the heights.

on the French from the plateau. On the following day they cleared the French from the valley below, and drove them across the river. The victory was completed by an advance through the valley on that same day.

The earliest operations made this comparatively easy. In fact many of the French had no alternative but to surrender, as the only hope of escape, over which a retreat might have been attempted, was commanded from the plateau above.

The correspondent reached the battlefield over the turnpike leading from Soissons, approaching by automobile as far as the village of Crouy, a scant mile from the French outpost, which were the scene three days earlier of desperate combat.

TURKS BUILDING
ROAD TO EGYPT.Will go by the Way of City of Jerusalem.Jews Flee Palestine Before Onrush of Troops.Rush of Refugees Resembles that from Belgium.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND WIRELESS MESSAGE.)
CAIRO, Jan. 21.—Refugees, arriving here, say that the Turks have not abandoned the project of building a strategic railway to the Egyptian frontier, but on the contrary are pushing it forward with the utmost energy.

The line now reaches Nabulus and it is intended to continue it by way of Jerusalem, Hebron and Beersheba. Troops are now concentrating in the neighborhood of Beersheba and Gaza.

Mt. Lebanon is said to be held by about 4000 men and Mt. Carmel to have been fortified.

Painful accounts reach here from Palestine of the flight of the Jews from the Turkish military regime. Djemal Pasha, Commander-in-Chief of the army, intended for the attack on the Suez Canal, appears to have undertaken a systematic destruction of the entire work of Jewish colonization built up by the labor of thirty years and the expenditure of millions of dollars.

Ten days ago a proclamation was issued ordering the destruction, under pain of death, of all colonial undertakings and papers relating to Jewish colonization. In many cases land settled by Jews was handed over to Arabs and when the valley of the Jordan was reached, the Jews were massacred in order to feed the army. Jewish peasants are being armed with any weapons discovered in Jewish hands.

The problems presented by refugees who are pouring into Alexandria from the sea route from Syrian ports threaten to assume proportions only less formidable than those of the Balkan migration of a year ago.

Seven thousand men, women and children, 75 per cent, being Russian Jews, have landed up to the present. The majority are absolutely destitute. Only a small number as yet have been sent to Russia. It is estimated that the total number of Jews who will be dealt with will be about 10,000.

The United States cruiser Tennessee has been fitted up on the lines of a transport ship for the evacuation of about 1500 refugees and is plying regularly between Alexandria and Jaffa.

German Newspapers Declare

Warfare, and England Himself has Dropped Bombs on Unfortified Cities Near the Border.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)
LONDON, Jan. 21.—Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent sends the following dispatch from Berlin, giving the German official version of the airship raid on the English coast:

"Our airships have been ordered to attack the fortified town of Great Tarmouth, were obliged to fly over other towns from which, it is stated, they were fired at. These attacks were answered by the throwing of bombs."

"England has no right to be indignant as her flying machines and ships in broad daylight have attacked towns such as Freiburg, Darmstadt and Swakopmund."

"Aircraft are acknowledged to be legitimate weapons in the carrying on of modern warfare as long as their operations are conducted in accordance with the rules of international law. This has been done by our dirigibles."

"The German nation, forced by England to fight for its existence, cannot be compelled to forego the employment of legitimate means of self-defense, and will not do it, relying upon her good right."

EXPECT OTHER RAIDS.
(BY WIRELESS AND A. P.)
BERLIN, Jan. 21 (via Saville, L. L.).—The first page of all newspapers published in Berlin this morning was given to news of the attack made by zeppelin airships on the English coast, and the reports from the eastern and western war theaters occupied inconspicuous places on inside pages.

With remarkable unanimity, the German press appears to expect that this raid will be followed shortly by others. While the amount of damage done by the bombs dropped from the airships is not yet known here, satisfaction is expressed in the fact that all the Zeppelins returned safe and the announced belief that the morale of the bombardment cannot fail to be very great, especially as it follows so closely the recent bombardment of Hartlepool and other points on the eastern coast of England by German cruisers.

SAN JUAN (P. R.), Jan. 21.—The steamship Coamo, Capt. Barber, which sailed from New York January 16 for San Juan, reports having sighted the German cruiser Karlsruhe off Morone this morning before daylight.

The cruiser turned a searchlight on the bridge of the Coamo, the ship's officials say, making the entrance of the vessel into the harbor difficult. The searchlight was directed at the less signals and disappeared in the darkness.

"We need not go back to the conditions that led to the great reforms, and we shall not do so," said Mr. Taft. "Corporations have been driven out of politics and while, of course, corruption is never absent, the danger of plutocracy has disappeared and the purification of politics has constituted a real reform for which all good citizens must be grateful."

Immediately following the session, called by Minority Leader Hager, the Republicans began their attack on the bill.

This was followed by a speech by Senator Lodge, who said that the bill was a "bill of the military."

Senator Lodge said that the bill was a "bill of the military" and that it was a "bill of the military."

Both communications were referred to committee.

TAKE TARIFF FROM POLITICS.

RANDALL OF CALIFORNIA HAS PLAN TO SUBMIT.

(BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Jan. 21.—Representative-elect C. H. Randall and Mrs. Randall arrived here yesterday and will remain until the end of this session on March 4.

Being a Prohibitionist, Randall will not concern with the Democrats, but he is a Wilson man and will be found voting with the Democrats, except, perhaps, on tariff questions.

When he will ask for protection, especially on California products. He would like to see the tariff taken out of politics and favor the creation of a non-partisan tariff commission.

The Congressman from Highland Park is quietly making it known among the members of the majority that he would like a place on the Rivers and Harbors Committee.

Congressman Kettner, who now represents California on that committee, is desirous of being appointed to the powerful Ways and Means Committee, where he believes he could be of greater service to his district, especially if any tariff legislation should be taken up.

One of the things Representative-elect Randall hopes to accomplish is to persuade President Wilson to make the trip from San Diego to Los Angeles by automobile when he visits California in March, visiting Riverside, Redlands, Pasadena and other cities, taking in the heart of the citrus belt and giving the majority of the people in Southern California an opportunity to see him.

He will probably call at the White House tomorrow to extend an invitation for such a trip.

It is probable that the new prohibition Democratic Congressman will have a voice in Federal appointments in California. He has already promised his support for the judgeship made vacant by Judge Wellborn's resignation to Mattison B. Jones.

There's no sense in mixing up a mess of mustard, flour and water when you can so easily relieve pain, soreness or stiffness with a little clean, white MUSTEROLE. FOREIGN TRADE VITAL ELEMENT.

Head of Steel Corporation on Our Opportunities.
John Bassett Moore Talks on Shipping Controversy.
Says Movement of Commerce is by Grace of England.

(BY A. P. MONT WIRE.)
ST. LOUIS, Jan. 21.—"One week of the European war did more than ten years of academic discussion to convince the American people that foreign trade is a vital element in domestic prosperity. No doubt remains that the nation is determined to see its foreign commerce safeguarded and increased. Differences of opinion relate only to methods. All parties and all elements are united in patriotic cooperation for the common end."
This statement was made tonight by James A. Farrell, president of the United States Steel Corporation, in an address at the banquet to delegates to the foreign trade convention in session here.

It became evident in today's discussions that an effort soon would be made to determine whether the Sherman anti-trust law prohibits combination by American manufacturers and merchants for the purpose of selling a joint sales agent to foreign countries. Conflicting opinions on the question were attributed to former Atty-Gen. Wickersham by John D. Ryan, president of the Associated Copper Company, and D. E. Skinner, president of a lumber company in Washington.

Mr. Ryan quoted "an Attorney-General" to the effect that manufacturers who sent a joint agent abroad would do so in violation of the Federal anti-trust law. Skinner then introduced a letter written to him in 1912 by Atty-Gen. Wickersham, which, Skinner claimed, was an opinion that "we can act in concert in export trade."

In view of this opinion Mr. Skinner said his service is now demanded by sales agents abroad and declared that he was prepared to do so "now." At this point Mr. Ryan said: "I want only to remind you, gentlemen, that it was Mr. Wickersham who told me we could not send a joint agent to foreign countries."

FROM FARRELL'S SPEECH.
Mr. Farrell said, in part, in his speech tonight:
"Whatever may be the political outcome of the European war, it is apparent that each of the belligerent nations will find it essential vigorously to pursue its foreign trade to repair the ravages of its domestic commerce, to provide labor to soldiers returned to peaceful pursuits, and to ameliorate the burden of taxation."

"The diplomacy of the future, as of the past, will be intimately concerned with commercial aggrandizement. American invention to establish a firm foothold in the markets of the world, whether neither political effort, tariff discrimination or low prices successfully can assure."

"Under the operation of the shipping registry act, over 100 vessels have been registered to American registry. Some of the onerous restrictions of the navigation laws were suspended in the neutral, on the basis of the right of visit and search. It should be remembered that this modification is not a repeal of existing navigation laws, but merely a suspension."

"While there may be differences of opinion as to the proper policy of upbuilding the merchant marine, it appears to be generally recognized that the long as these restrictions are not legislatively repealed, the possibility of an enlarged American merchant marine competing successfully with the ships of other nations in time of peace will be a matter of slow growth."

The little while is given the fact that the war, which for the time being eliminated half of Europe as a source of supply, likewise curtailed Europe's consumption of South American products. South American purchasing power eventually will improve with increased exports and imports, but American manufacturers and merchants, embarking for the first time in foreign trade, should be prepared to exercise patience and persistence in their efforts."

PROF. JENKES THEORY.
Prof. J. W. Jenks of Cornell University in an address at the banquet said:
"The present war has opened up opportunities and should stimulate the imagination of the American business man as nothing else has done for years. The opening up of foreign markets furnishes an opportunity for the broadening of our outlook, of our sympathy with the people of other nations."

"The war furnishes the American business man an opportunity and the opportunity of the American business man is a benefit, rather than a hindrance to the belligerents now and in the future."

Secretary of Commerce Redfield departed from his prepared speech at the convention today to impress on his auditors the great opportunities for foreign trade that the war has brought American business men.

He said:
"A manufacturer expecting to enter the South American market recently told me that as a preliminary he investigated the conditions of his competitors in Europe and found that it would take them four years to recover from the effects of the war, by which time he hoped to be in a position to take their place. This is a predicament justifies us in giving to the subject our most serious consideration, for we must look to the future as well as the present."

REDFIELD'S SUGGESTIONS.
Secretary of Commerce Redfield reviewed the work of the Department of Commerce in promoting foreign trade. He said that since May, 1914, the department has stationed eight commercial attaches abroad, though there were none at that time. He now has about 30 to Petrograd and another to Melbourne.

He said that the Federal banking laws, whereby American banking institutions could unite with Americans interested in over-sea commerce in the establishment of foreign banks, was urged by John J. Arnold, vice-president of the First National Bank of Chicago.

GARZA KEEPS ORDER IN CAPITAL; MARTIAL LAW REIGNS.

AMALGAMATION PLAN.
Amalgamation of the Senate and Assembly into one law-making organization is the subject of two amendments introduced in the Assembly. One proposed by Senator Carr introduced a bill enacting the entire public utilities act, under which the Railroad Commission operates, the only change being enabling sections to give the Railroad Commission control over public utility rates in all municipalities.

BRISK FIGHT DEVELOPS.
The first brisk fight on the floor of the Senate this session developed today when an attempt was made to pass Senator Carr's bill requiring dust-proof containers for cement and back to committee. The motion was made by Senator Butler, chairman of the Committee on Public Health and Quarantine, from which the cement bill was sent out two days ago with a recommendation for its passage. Senator Carr, also a member of the committee, who brought in a minority report on the bill supported Butler. Senator Carr took the lead against them, and the debate was vigorous. The measure provoked one of the fiercest contests of the 1915 session, and Butler and Carr argued that it should have a fuller and longer consideration in committee. They did not carry their point, and the cement bill was given second reading and sent to third-reading file, where it is expected to remain until after the constitutional recess.

IN THE ASSEMBLY.
TO ABOLISH CHAIN GANGS.
By A. P. MONT WIRE.
SACRAMENTO, Jan. 21.—County jail prisoners would be prohibited from doing road work or other labor, except within the boundaries or limits of the jail, enclosure by the provisions of a bill introduced today by Assemblyman W. A. McDonald of San Francisco. Chain gangs would be abolished.

LONG BEACH MONUMENT.
Assemblyman Rominger presented a bill calling for the appointment by the Governor of a commission of three members to select a site for a memorial monument at Long Beach. An appropriation of $1000 is asked, contingent upon a similar sum being raised by the Grand Army post of Long Beach.

FRESH DRINKING.
Employers would be required to provide fresh drinking water during working hours by the terms of a bill presented by Assemblyman J. J. McDonald.

WORK FOR UNEMPLOYED.
Assemblyman Downing, Socialist, asked for an appropriation of a million dollars to provide work for the unemployed of the State. He would have the money disbursed by the State Board of Control.

SIX DAYS' WORK.
Assemblyman Ferguson is the author of two bills providing that the State and private employers be required not to work their employees more than six days a week. Exceptions are made in case of emergency where the care of sick persons and live stock are concerned.

OTHER BILLS.
By Goddard—Prohibiting employers from interfering with social and business dealings of employees outside the scope of their employment.
By Boyce—Prohibiting the use of nets for fishing in the Salinas River and Elkhorn sloughs.
By T. M. Wright—Increasing the powers of the State Bureau of Labor Statistics in enforcement of labor laws.
By Conrad—Fixing pilotage fees in San Diego harbor.
By Encell—Prohibiting advertisement of cure of certain diseases.
By Encell—Creating a department of natural resources to take over the work now done by the State conservation departments.
By Kennedy—Regulation of private detective bureaus, increasing bond from $1000 to $10,000, and requiring one year's residence in the State before being eligible to employment.

RESOLUTIONS.
The First Affiliations Committee returned the House four joint resolutions with recommendations that be adopted. The resolutions are: By Gaudier—Indorsement of the Hamilton bill providing for the pensioning of government civil service employees.
By Ryan—Acceptance by the Pan-Pacific International Exposition of temporary jurisdiction over certain portions of the military reservations in San Francisco.
By Lyon—Establishment and equipment of additional life-saving stations on the Pacific Coast.
By Manning—Establishment of a life-saving station near Duxbury Reef, Marin county.

HOME FOR BLIND.
An appropriation of $7000 for improvement at the Industrial Home for the Adult Blind, Oakland, and appropriations amounting to $17,000 for the California School for the Deaf and Blind, Berkeley, are provided in bills introduced today by Senator Wright and D. R. Hayes. Adoption of the latter institution to select a site looking toward the establishment of separate schools for deaf and blind.

MINOR BILLS.
No candidate for State or county office could get his name on the election ballot with more than one party endorsement under the provisions of a bill introduced in the House today by Assemblyman Bartlett of Los Angeles. The bill seeks to amend the present direct primary law.

AMENDMENTS TO THE SAN JOSE CHARTER.
The amendments came before the House as a concurrent resolution introduced by Assemblyman T. M. Wright and D. R. Hayes. Adoption was recommended by the Committee on Municipal Corporations. It now goes to the Senate.

THREE DOLLARS A DAY FOR TRIAL JURORS.

events are happening. The Russians continue to make progress against the Austrian outposts in the mountains between Bukovina and Transylvania. The Germans explain the actions of their armies in dropping bombs on towns and villages in Norfolk, England, by saying that they had been fired on. British armies, in turn, have been busy in Belgium, and according to a report from Holland, have ventured as far as Essen, Rheinfelden, where they destroyed some buildings. Holland has asked Germany for an explanation of the report that the German army is on their way to England passed over Dutch territory. Archduke Charles Francis, heir to the Austrian throne, has arrived at German headquarters on a visit to the Emperor, and Baron Stephen Burian, the Austro-Hungarian Minister of Foreign Affairs, is due there within a few days. It is expected the conference of the German allies will decide whether the Austro-Germans will go on with the expedition for the subjugation of Serbia or turn their attention to the Russian armies between the Carpathians and the Danube. With all her other occupations, England has found force to deal with the "mad" Mullahs who have been stirring up the tribes in Somaliland and attacking those friendly to Great Britain. The German and Austrian have been defeated and scattered.

OBREGON DENIES GUTIERREZ PACT.
EL PASO (Tex.), Jan. 21.—Gen. Alvaro Obregon, commander of the main group of the revolution, has denied the existence of a pact with Carranza, which he had entered into an agreement with Gen. Eulalio Gutierrez for the overthrow of Carranza. It has been reported from Mexico City that Gutierrez before his flight from the revolution and Obregon on the other hand, Carranza agents here today asserted that Gen. Teodoro Elizondo, a former convention brigade commander, had been reported from Mexico City as remaining at Aguascalientes, north of Queretaro, an important center north of the capital. Villa was reported to be at the Carranza faction.

GARZA MAINTAINS ORDER AT CAPITAL.
MEXICO CITY, Jan. 19. (via El Paso, Tex., Jan. 21.)—In an interview tonight Col. Roque Gonzalez Garza, temporary executive of Mexico, said that a majority of the officials of the various departments of the government were continuing their duties. He said: "The garbion of Mexico City is sufficient to repel any attack without endangering lives or interests of its inhabitants." Col. Gonzalez Garza has issued a decree regarding the re-establishment of public tranquility. The decree orders the death penalty for such offenses as robbery, kidnapping, threatening, writing bogus telegraph dispatches, assaulting women, attempting bodily harm against members of the congress or publishing alarming news. The city is quiet.

PROXY WEDDING HELD IN DENVER.

SOCIETY BELLE MARRIED TO HUSBAND TEN THOUSAND MILES AWAY.

(BY DEWENT VICE-SECRETARY DISPATCH.)

DENVER, Jan. 31.—Denver society girls witnessed tonight the most extraordinary wedding ever celebrated in the United States when Miss Eugenia Campbell of Colorado Springs became the bride of John Pieter Scholten, a Dutch Dutchman, at present located

Samarang, Java, 10,000 miles away. Through a special dispensation by the Queen of Holland, Miss Campbell and Scholten were permitted to marry by proxy so that they would not be obliged to emigrate to the Netherlands of Holland when she goes to Java, its province.

W. V. Deuell, a Brooklyn youth, now residing in Denver, acted as proxy divorcing here, and a girl unknown to Campbell, a Dutch girl, acted as proxy. The ceremony performed mysteriously in Java. Miss Eleanor McFall was maid of honor and Russell Chellard, a Dutchman, officiated as minister.

B. McFall gave the bride away. A sister of Miss Campbell and another sister of the Dutch costume, were bridesmaids.

The Rev. David L. Fouse of the first reformed church performed the wedding ceremony at the residence of L. McFall, where a large group of city people and gathered. The wedding ceremony was changed so that Duell, the proxy bridegroom, answered the questions for Scholten, whom he never saw.

Miss Campbell will leave in a few days for San Francisco and there start a new life.

VIBRATORY NOTE—AND AS IN THE CASE OF—

This is what may happen— Of the exuberance of courtroom orators is not cured. One of them was orating in Judge Houser's court yesterday and the vibration due to his voice split a board in the witness box.

Moving.

LAWYER'S ELOQUENCE SHATTERS FURNITURE.

THE effect of a wound upon the epithelial tissue—

Attorney C. W. Hackler's sonorous voice rose in eloquence as he addressed the jury trying a damages suit in Judge Houser's court yesterday.

Mr. Hackler, when the cause had been ascertained and the crack in the board had been inspected, resumed the deposition he had been reading, transcribed from the evidence of Dr. Granville MacGowan, but when he repeated the magic words, he lowered his voice and involuntarily paused, less than three minutes following the same disastrous results.

Word of the affair was carried to other courtrooms, where stiller witness boxes are used. To avoid a repetition of the keynote effect, some judges propose covering the front of the boxes with a cloth.

"You cannot tell what effect it might have on the nerves of women when the sermon comes into juxtaposition with a sounding board," said one.

HIGHLAND PARK HIGH-SCHOOL SITE.

BOARD OF EDUCATION SETTLES LONG CONTENT OVER A LOCATION.

The prolonged discussion of a proper site for a High School in the Highland Park-Garvan district reached a climax yesterday, at a meeting of the City Board of Education, and what that body considered the best site for the school was determined.

The site contains between eleven and twelve acres, and is bounded by Avenue 54, Avenue 56, Hub street and Irving place, and has been designated as "Irving place site."

It is four blocks west of Pasadena avenue and four blocks beyond old Occidental College, which is located at Avenue 56 and Pasadena.

The struggle has been going on for months, strong pressure having been brought to bear to induce the purchase of the old college buildings and site, and also for the Polk's Hill site at the head of Monte Vista street.

MINISTER DIES IN HONOLULU.

PASSING OF DR. FERGUSON, A FORMER LOCAL PASTOR.

Active Career as Preacher and Educator Ends in Hawaiian Islands, Where He Was Principal of Mills School—Was Important Factor in Affairs of the Islands.

Dr. Wilbert P. Ferguson, who was pastor of the Boyle Heights Methodist Church, this city, in 1904, died in Honolulu, on January 5, aged 52 years, following an operation for appendicitis. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Cora Belle Ferguson, who was his second wife; two sons, Donald and Perry, and three daughters, Ora, Margaret and Helen.

At the time of his death he was principal of the Mills School, a boarding school for orientals, a branch of the Mid-Pacific Institute, which position he assumed in September, 1913. He was a native of Canada, son of a Methodist minister, and was named Wilbert Perry Ferguson, after the famous Admiral Perry, of whom he was a lineal descendant on his mother's side.

He was a graduate of Victoria University, Victoria, and of the Theological Seminary. He became professor of Latin in Wesleyan University, which institution conferred upon him the degree of doctor of divinity. Later he entered the pulpit and among his charges in Southern California were Boyle Heights and Redlands. From the latter place he went to Lincoln, Neb., and then became pastor of the Central Baptist Church at Hackettstown, N. J. Then followed his four years' service as head master of the Strynna School, which he surrendered to accept the principalship of Mills School, Honolulu.

He soon began to take an interest in the affairs of the Hawaiian Islands and at the time of his death was considered an important factor and leader in all civic and religious affairs. He was an exceptionally fine scholar, a fluent writer and speaker, and was sought as an influential element in every movement in the islands for betterment of the people. He was active in the work among Chinese, in the Y.M.C.A., Hawaiian Board of Missions, and in the Hawaiian League.

Appeals for contributions will be made exclusively to newboys. It is desired to raise $120, which will be sufficient to pay the funeral expenses of the late minister, and a young man to be selected later, who will accompany the remains, which should be taken East not later than tomorrow morning.

Accumulate to Paralysis—Friends Seeking to Raise Enough Money to Send Body to Former Home.

Morris Fluberg, a newboy, known in nearly every large city in the United States as "Jitney Hogan," and a familiar figure on the streets of Los Angeles for fifteen years, is dead. His passing came suddenly at the County Hospital, after a short illness of paralysis.

Always living up to his income, the popular "newbie" was penniless when he came upon him, and his friends among the newboys of the city decided yesterday to raise a purse to pay for the transportation of his body to Chicago, where his mother and other relatives live. The task of securing the money has been undertaken by the following committee, and it is hoped enough may be obtained today for the sad mission:

Harry E. Graves of The Times, C. H. Wilson of Examiner, A. H. Jannet of Tribune, George Hussey of Herald, Alex. Lavina of Express, Art Reynolds, Recorder.

Appeals for contributions will be made exclusively to newboys. It is desired to raise $120, which will be sufficient to pay the funeral expenses of the late minister, and a young man to be selected later, who will accompany the remains, which should be taken East not later than tomorrow morning.

As a last desperate effort to keep things moving until succor arrives from some as yet unknown place, Alexander Canan has been permitted to rent labor auditorium for four-round boxing bouts, on one Tuesday of each month, and Turner Hall has

YUMA PROJECT; SETTLERS LOSE.

May not Hold Their Entries on Withdrawn Area.

Large Improvements Give no Prior Rights to Land.

Decision Dispossesses Two Hundred Homesteaders.

An opinion was received from the Secretary of the Interior yesterday by the local Land Office that "deals a body blow to settlers who have gone on the land embraced by the Yuma project, on the word of locators who collected fat fees with the assurance that the entrymen would be allowed to remain on their entries in spite of the fact that the land had been withdrawn from all forms of location."

The territory involved is not less than 20,000 acres, and extends from Niland, Imperial county, almost down to the Mexican boundary. It is estimated that there are not less than 200 settlers in the territory involved, and the Secretary of the Interior has declared them trespassers and entitled to no consideration. In many instances valuable improvements have been made, but according to the dictum of the land authorities, these men must take their chances when the land is finally opened. They have no sort of preference rights from the fact that they are already on the ground.

The case in point, a copy of the decision having yesterday been sent out generally interested people in the Imperial Valley, is that of Irwin W. McGrew, who appealed from the decision of the Commissioner of the General Land Office rendered February 27, 1914, rejecting his application to make a desert land entry upon the ground that the land applied for was embraced within a reclamation withdrawal, first form, in connection with the Yuma project, and because the application is in conflict with the desert land application of George P. Hauser.

The rejection of the application is held to be proper and the decision appealed from, so holding, is affirmed.

Assistant Secretary Sweeney, in his decision says: "While it has been determined to open this tract, with adjoining lands, to disposition, the plan given the same has not yet been determined upon. When adopted, it will not, however, admit of according any preference under the application to the locators who have taken title to the land, when issued opening these lands."

It is declared that large amounts of money have been paid out to professional land locators by means of the withdrawal order of the government, who were made to believe that they would be allowed to remain.

It will be a matter of surprise if there is not serious trouble there when the land is opened, for entrymen who have spent large amounts of money and labor on their holdings will be loath to surrender them to more lucky ones who may be awarded their particular lands.

Then followed his four years' service as head master of the Strynna School, which he surrendered to accept the principalship of Mills School, Honolulu.

He soon began to take an interest in the affairs of the Hawaiian Islands and at the time of his death was considered an important factor and leader in all civic and religious affairs. He was an exceptionally fine scholar, a fluent writer and speaker, and was sought as an influential element in every movement in the islands for betterment of the people. He was active in the work among Chinese, in the Y.M.C.A., Hawaiian Board of Missions, and in the Hawaiian League.

Appeals for contributions will be made exclusively to newboys. It is desired to raise $120, which will be sufficient to pay the funeral expenses of the late minister, and a young man to be selected later, who will accompany the remains, which should be taken East not later than tomorrow morning.

Morris Fluberg, a newboy, known in nearly every large city in the United States as "Jitney Hogan," and a familiar figure on the streets of Los Angeles for fifteen years, is dead. His passing came suddenly at the County Hospital, after a short illness of paralysis.

Always living up to his income, the popular "newbie" was penniless when he came upon him, and his friends among the newboys of the city decided yesterday to raise a purse to pay for the transportation of his body to Chicago, where his mother and other relatives live. The task of securing the money has been undertaken by the following committee, and it is hoped enough may be obtained today for the sad mission:

Harry E. Graves of The Times, C. H. Wilson of Examiner, A. H. Jannet of Tribune, George Hussey of Herald, Alex. Lavina of Express, Art Reynolds, Recorder.

As a last desperate effort to keep things moving until succor arrives from some as yet unknown place, Alexander Canan has been permitted to rent labor auditorium for four-round boxing bouts, on one Tuesday of each month, and Turner Hall has been secured for dances, promoted, state the wise ones, for the sole purpose of getting revenue out of the bar. The association bank is without funds to do business, and neither the poolroom nor the barber shop are paying expenses.

What will come next no one in labor circles knows. For a time it was hoped that the "Mills" case would go to the court and that the well-known San Francisco methods to the coercion of the recalcitrant into helping breathe life into the withering carcass of unionism. But Casey of tenaster strike infamy has shown another disposition to jump into the sandbagging nor to answer letters.

YUMA PROJECT; SETTLERS LOSE.

May not Hold Their Entries on Withdrawn Area.

Large Improvements Give no Prior Rights to Land.

Decision Dispossesses Two Hundred Homesteaders.

An opinion was received from the Secretary of the Interior yesterday by the local Land Office that "deals a body blow to settlers who have gone on the land embraced by the Yuma project, on the word of locators who collected fat fees with the assurance that the entrymen would be allowed to remain on their entries in spite of the fact that the land had been withdrawn from all forms of location."

The territory involved is not less than 20,000 acres, and extends from Niland, Imperial county, almost down to the Mexican boundary. It is estimated that there are not less than 200 settlers in the territory involved, and the Secretary of the Interior has declared them trespassers and entitled to no consideration. In many instances valuable improvements have been made, but according to the dictum of the land authorities, these men must take their chances when the land is finally opened. They have no sort of preference rights from the fact that they are already on the ground.

The case in point, a copy of the decision having yesterday been sent out generally interested people in the Imperial Valley, is that of Irwin W. McGrew, who appealed from the decision of the Commissioner of the General Land Office rendered February 27, 1914, rejecting his application to make a desert land entry upon the ground that the land applied for was embraced within a reclamation withdrawal, first form, in connection with the Yuma project, and because the application is in conflict with the desert land application of George P. Hauser.

The rejection of the application is held to be proper and the decision appealed from, so holding, is affirmed.

Assistant Secretary Sweeney, in his decision says: "While it has been determined to open this tract, with adjoining lands, to disposition, the plan given the same has not yet been determined upon. When adopted, it will not, however, admit of according any preference under the application to the locators who have taken title to the land, when issued opening these lands."

It is declared that large amounts of money have been paid out to professional land locators by means of the withdrawal order of the government, who were made to believe that they would be allowed to remain.

It will be a matter of surprise if there is not serious trouble there when the land is opened, for entrymen who have spent large amounts of money and labor on their holdings will be loath to surrender them to more lucky ones who may be awarded their particular lands.

MINISTER DIES IN HONOLULU.

PASSING OF DR. FERGUSON, A FORMER LOCAL PASTOR.

Active Career as Preacher and Educator Ends in Hawaiian Islands, Where He Was Principal of Mills School—Was Important Factor in Affairs of the Islands.

Dr. Wilbert P. Ferguson, who was pastor of the Boyle Heights Methodist Church, this city, in 1904, died in Honolulu, on January 5, aged 52 years, following an operation for appendicitis. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Cora Belle Ferguson, who was his second wife; two sons, Donald and Perry, and three daughters, Ora, Margaret and Helen.

At the time of his death he was principal of the Mills School, a boarding school for orientals, a branch of the Mid-Pacific Institute, which position he assumed in September, 1913. He was a native of Canada, son of a Methodist minister, and was named Wilbert Perry Ferguson, after the famous Admiral Perry, of whom he was a lineal descendant on his mother's side.

He was a graduate of Victoria University, Victoria, and of the Theological Seminary. He became professor of Latin in Wesleyan University, which institution conferred upon him the degree of doctor of divinity. Later he entered the pulpit and among his charges in Southern California were Boyle Heights and Redlands. From the latter place he went to Lincoln, Neb., and then became pastor of the Central Baptist Church at Hackettstown, N. J. Then followed his four years' service as head master of the Strynna School, which he surrendered to accept the principalship of Mills School, Honolulu.

He soon began to take an interest in the affairs of the Hawaiian Islands and at the time of his death was considered an important factor and leader in all civic and religious affairs. FINDS TUGWELL IS A MURDERER.

Jury's Verdict Calls for Life Imprisonment.

He Takes Doom as Though it Were Nothing.

His Mother, Brother and Bride Faint.

Percy A. Tugwell was found guilty of murder in the first degree by a jury in Department No. 13 last night, and life imprisonment recommended. Tugwell killed Mrs. Maud B. Kennedy, the "diamond woman," on the night of August 31, last.

In the courtroom to hear the verdict were Tugwell, his father, brother Walter, attorney, and a few others. As it was rendered Walter burst out crying. The father stood patiently by as though struck dumb for the moment. Percy Tugwell, seeing his brother sobbing walked over to him, placed his arms around the 18-year-old boy, and said, "Cheer up Walter, this is nothing." Then the father took the boy in hand and walked into the back witness-room. There sat

POLITICS BACK OF IT, HE SAYS.

Graves Points Out Reasons for Depression.

"Plethora of Attacks on the Business World."

"But Country Can Survive Democratic Reign."

Destruction of confidence owing to Federal legislative activities was the cause assigned for the depression which existed in the financial world of the United States during the past year by J. A. Graves, vice-president and manager of the Farmers' and Merchants' National Bank, last night at the regular monthly banquet of the Los Angeles Credit Men's Association at the Jonathan Club. He naturally expressed the belief, however, that the country is big enough and rich enough to endure two years more of Democratic administration.

"Confidence is the mother of credit.
Credit is the mother of trade, of commerce and of all business transactions between individuals, communities and nations," he said. "Destroy confidence and credit contracts. Destroy credit and values shrink. Every financial panic this country has ever known was precipitated by confidence destroyed."

"There was just as much money in the United States in October, 1907, as there was in January, 1907. In January of that year people had confidence; in October they had lost it.
Then the hoarding of money began.
Lack of confidence made 1914 a year we were all glad to get rid of.
When confidence disappears, the financial sun goes into an eclipse.
Each man is distrustful of his neighbor. Every creditor becomes doubtful of his debtor, and the situation is rendered more deplorable by the universal endeavor to get all outstanding paid."

"This situation immediately leads to a contraction of all lines of business. Demand for goods falls off. The manufacturers cease to manufacture.
Then labor suffers. The vast army of the unemployed becomes a charge and a menace to society generally.
Hungry people know no law.
Legislative attacks upon business, investigations of trusts, the efforts of political demagogues to keep in the limelight, of all of which, since the Houseveltian age we have had a plethora, have destroyed about all of the confidence built up in America by years of prosperity. As a result there are more people unemployed in the United States at the present time than at any period in its history, notwithstanding Secretary McAdoo's announcement that prosperity is here, and notwithstanding the fact that the European war has put in motion many dormant industries.

"An examination of the balance sheets of the commercial houses of the city will inform you whether the condition which prevailed in the United States in 1914 were, as claimed by our distinguished President, psychological, or whether they resulted from the universal rule that when confidence is lost, capital does not take chances.

"Dink's review shows that the total amount of liabilities for failures which occurred in the United States in 1914, amounted to $27,508,859. This is $11,000,000 greater than the panic year of 1893, and far in excess of the total amount during any other year for twenty-nine past.

"In citing these figures I am not taking a pessimistic view of the future. I am satisfied that this country is big enough and rich enough to stand two years more of Democratic administration."
Mr. Graves also dwelt on credit conditions and their relation to the upbuilding of confidence, as well as upon the qualifications which go to make up a good credit man. He was subsequently requested by J. D. Simpson, president of the association, and treasurer of the evening, to give some reminiscences of Los Angeles in the early days, which he did in his inimitable fashion.

About 200 members of the association were present at the meeting.
The organization which is affiliated with the national credit men's association is composed principally of wholesale dealers and bankers.

THESE YEGGMEN POSSESS NERVE.

THEY BURGLARIZE JEWELRY STORE WHILE MANY
WATCH THEM.

In full view of a score of persons bound for work early yesterday morning two yeggmen cut the plate glass window in the jewelry store of Feagans & Co., on Fifth street, and obtained about $300 worth of watches, chains and clocks.
That the daring burglary was committed after daylight and that the men worked as though without fear of interruption, was determined when the police found several persons who had seen the men and supposed that they were glaziers, and were putting in a new window. A square hole was cut in one corner of the plate glass and a long stick with a hook attached to the end, was used to pull the jewels from the case.
A complete description of the men was furnished by persons who saw the men at work.

Latin Revival.

has the statistics to show that whereas only 100,000 pupils in the secondary schools of the United States were studying Latin in 1908, now the number has increased to 200,000. He believes the increased interest in the study is evidence of a reaction against the commercial spirit in education which, as he declares, seeks to make "earning machines rather than men."

Beginning at 10 a. m. next Monday Dean West will deliver a lecture at that hour daily for five days on these subjects: "College Preparation," "College Studies," "College Life," "Graduate Studies," and "What a Liberal Education Means." He will be the guest of honor at a banquet to be given by the Princeton Alumni Association of Southern California to-night at the Hotel Maryland in Pasadena.

"It is not surprising that most American parents desire what they call a 'practical education' for their children," Dean West said yesterday at the Alexandria. "They want their children to win business achievement, get ahead in the world."

"There is a sense in which every boy ought to have a practical side of his education—a useful side. In the highest sense all education is useful and none is useless. We have to remember that ninety per cent. of the American boys have to begin earning their living quite early in life that settles in advance the amount of his education and, to a large extent, the kind."

"But after all this is granted the big question remains: Why should anybody be educated at all? 'What is the object?' 'Is it to make an earning machine or a man?' If the former, then let us rigorously exclude every consideration except that of obvious immediate money-getting utility. There are many unfortunate cases where this is all the education that the boy or girl can get."

"This unhappy situation means that the young person is destined to a life little better than that of an industrial slave. There is not a factory, workshop or big store in the country where this idea of education is not present and may be judged by its results. It means that the workman is always kept in subjugation to the work he must do with little chance to advance. This is the rankest form of commercialism in education."

"If for no other reason than to find a remedy for such a state of affairs and promote the public and personal good we must fall back on a different theory of education. There is only one other theory of education and that is that the object of education is to train the mind and character to their very highest possibilities—to turn the boy into the best possible man that can be made out of him. This is the most useful thing in the long run."

"There are just these two things needed to develop the intellectual power to its highest point: To think clearly and justly and to express thought clearly and justly. Experience proves that these are the great studies which train men to think in the best way: Mathematics, science, philosophy and history."

"In the same way language and literature must be studied. If the individual is trained to express himself in the best way. Often I am asked if the study of Latin and Greek is not a waste of time. My answer is that these studies do not belong to primary education which is all ninety per cent. of the people get, but to secondary and higher education. Those of the other ten per cent. who do not improve their opportunity to study Latin and Greek miss the best chance to learn how to express thought. We forget that these languages are the fundamentals of so much else."

"The study of Latin and Greek is not a waste of time. It is the best way to learn how to express thought. We forget that these languages are the fundamentals of so much else."

WINEMEN CELEBRATE.

Stockholders of Italian Vineyard Company Wage Enthusiastic over Business Prospects at Banquet.

The Italian Vineyard Company had a sumptuous banquet last night at the Delmonico Cafe, where its first bi-annual meeting was held. Secondo Guast, president of this one of the largest wine-producing concerns of the United States, reviewed the successful year of the wine industry in California and predicted still greater prosperity. Of special interest to the stockholders present at the banquet was Mr. Guast's description of his early struggles in Mexico and California, which led up to his founding the most extensive vineyard and winery in Southern California.

Mr. W. O'Melveny, counsel for the company, in a brilliant address paid high tribute to the commercial genius of the Italian people as a factor in the progress of California and the entire United States. Prof. G. Andreini, editor of La Patria, the local Italian newspaper, gave a spirited talk in Italian, in which he expressed his appreciation of America as a country offering unlimited scope for the ability of Italian and other foreign peoples—in all branches of business achievement.

J. A. Bartoli, secretary of the company, acted as toastmaster. Federico Cornacchia sang popular Neapolitan songs accompanied by Mr. Marotta, harpist, and Signor Giulio, flutist.

Stockholders who attended the banquet were: Secondo Guast, R. W. O'Melveny, J. Tarabino, A. Rosolo, L. Pelanconi, A. Dell'acqua, J. Demetis, A. Ferrario, F. Bessano, N. Gillett, H. E. Wheller, G. E. Baldwin, G. L. Jachtemberger, Secondo Guast, Jr., G. Perro, A. Vignolo, J. Pargiano, L. Bartoli and L. Vignolo.

ATTACKS WIFE'S EMPLOYER.

Man Paroled from Asylum. Fells Manager of Store and His Stenographer with a Steel Bar.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

CHICAGO, Jan. 21.—Harold Taylor, paroled recently from the Kankakee Insane Asylum, visited today at a furniture store where his wife is employed, and with a steel bar wrapped in a newspaper, felled Mr. L. Lauren, manager of the store, and attacked Miss Zaida Henry, his stenographer. Then he rushed through the crowd of women shoppers to the street, where he was arrested.

Mrs. Taylor said she could not account for her husband's actions. "I knew he had been paroled," she said, "but I had not seen him."

Umbrella vs. Revolver.

BANDIT SHOTS VICTIM WHO RESISTS ROBBERY.

H. F. SEIFRIED of No. 423 West Sixty-third street was shot through the right hand at 10:30 o'clock last night while struggling with a bandit, who held him and his daughter, Miss Nina Seifried, up with a stone's throw of their home. With an umbrella Mr. Seifried raised blows at the highwayman's head until he fled without securing any loot.

Mr. Seifried and his daughter were returning home from a theater and had just stepped from a street car at Sixty-third and Figueroa streets, when the bandit rushed at them from behind a palm tree. He thrust a revolver in Mr. Seifried's face and told him to throw up his hands.

Mr. Seifried was carrying his umbrella folded, and, instead of complying with the request, struck the man on the head. During the struggle the bandit fired at him, one bullet piercing Mr. Seifried's hand and another tearing a hole in his coat and vest near the heart.

So viciously did Mr. Seifried apply the blows with his umbrella that the bandit finally broke away and ran down the street. Although painfully wounded and weakened by the loss of blood, Mr. Seifried aided the police in the pursuit of the robber. He was later taken to the police station in a wide search for the bandit.

Later in the night, the injured man, accompanied by his daughter, who had never deserted him, but who bravely assisted him in resisting the robber's attack, went to the Receiving Hospital to have his hand dressed.

State Railroad Commission Gives Mt. Whitney Power Corporation Permission to go Ahead.

Authority to issue $418,000 of preferred stock and to convert $750,000 of similar stock, now outstanding, into common stock, was given the Mt. Whitney Power and Electric Company yesterday by decision of the State Railroad Commission. This company operates chiefly in Tulare and Kern counties, and is the property of a New York holding corporation.

The proceeds from the issue of preferred stock are to be used principally to pay off the company's floating indebtedness, though the order of the commission provides that the company may retain $100,000 of the issue in the treasury to be used either to care for future betterments or to satisfy monetary obligations.

The company intends to issue the stock to the holding corporation. This concern in its turn will issue shares in corresponding amounts.

WAR INSURANCE RATES.

That the opinion of eminent British financiers concerning the date of the termination of the war differs from that of military experts on both sides is evidenced by the recent ruling of London Lloyds. Pepper Answers Charges of Federal.

Tells how to Become a Free Agent.

Case May Have to be Heaved Out of Court.

(BY A. P. MURPHY WIRE.)

CHICAGO, Jan. 21.—The question of Federal jurisdiction and the renewed declaration that under the National and American leagues' "modified contract" a player becomes a free agent the year after the expiration of his agreed term of service were featured at today's session of the anti-trust suit against the most powerful bodies of organized baseball.

Judge E. M. Landis, who is hearing the case, brought up the question of jurisdiction again, and, making the first statement on the side of organized ball, George W. Pepper of Philadelphia, of counsel for the defense, discussed it at some length after the Federal League attorneys had stated their case.

Pepper asserted that the intervention of the Clayton law was not intended to be a remedy for the Federal League case, but that the Federal League was a monopoly in restraint of interstate commerce. Sections of the Clayton law were then cited to show that labor is not regarded as an article of commerce, and the decision in the Hammerstein-Metropolitan Opera Company case was brought in as another authority on the same subject. The decision, holding that the labor of opera singers was not commodity of commerce, was held by Pepper applicable to the labor of ball players.

NOT DECIDED. Judge Landis did not decide the question, and it was said tonight there was a possibility the case would be thrown out of court.

In his general argument, which followed after James A. Sullivan, counsel for the Federal League, had presented the plaintiff's case, Pepper insisted he did not know what the Federal League was asking to have enjoined.

His grievance is not that he prevent them from sending their young ball players on the "tour" and developing them through training in the various minor leagues, as we do; they want to attain in one year the results which we have gained through ten years of labor; they want to profit from the skill developed by our money," he said.

FEW CASES. Pepper declared there were few cases of individual hardship worked against players by the Federal League, the reserve rule and the judgments of the National Commission.

"It is noteworthy that neither the two-day clause nor the reserve rule were specified by the Ball Players' Fraternity as objectionable," he said. "We admit having made some mistakes. I do not believe I would have treated an old war horse like Mordca Brown the way he was treated, but I ask that the members of the defense to the affidavits of the players be read carefully. The latter omitted to tell their life story, how they were brought up by the minors, and the progressively larger salaries they have received."

Pepper gave a history of the game and the formation of the first agreement between the American and National leagues, which preceded the national agreement. These agreements, he declared, were not for the purpose of protecting the parties to them from outsiders, but against each other.

BETTER. In 1913 the conditions under which baseball was played had reached a marked advance, said the lawyer, "and the recording angel, I believe, will find a balance to the credit side of our account," he declared.

The new rule regarding the option on a ball player's services, the attorney emphasized, made for his liberty. "He is a free agent when he has served one season, I believe, and the option of the term he signs for," he declared.

JOHN BALCH IS BOWLING KING.

AVERAGES 236 FOR TEN GAMES AGAINST THE COAST CHAMPION.

(BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

EAST SAN PEDRO, Jan. 21.—John Balch, local contractor, defeated Earl Shay of Pasadena, holder of the Pacific Coast bowling championship, on the Globe alleys tonight before an overpacked assemblage in the initial match contest for the leadership of the Pacific Coast, by a total of 2367 to 1787 for ten games.

Balch rolled a heady, consistent game. His high score for the evening was 276, while Shay grabbed his high game in the ninth with 261. The San Pedro man won the ten games and in all but the last rolled over 200. The pair will clash in the final meet to decide the championship at Pasadena February 1. The scores: Balch—234, 261, 276, 265, 217, 217, 218, 218, 171; total, 2367; average, 236.7. Shay—192, 199, 188, 188, 170, 193, 166, 167, 201, 157; total, 1787; average, 178.7.

RECORD MADE BY A BOWLER.

(BY A. P. MURPHY WIRE.)

ELK POINT (S. D.) Jan. 21.—Dwight Hamlet, the Sioux City Marathon bowler, broke the world's record here today by bowling 100 games in nine hours and 16 minutes. His average was 182 pins.

The former record for 100 games was 11 hours flat, held by Frank Griffith and J. P. Upson, bowled at Hartford, Ct., in 1908.

HUNS LOOK FUNNY, BUT THEY PLAY REAL BALL.

Liable to Miss the Easy Shots, They Grab Everything that Looks Impossible—Only Four of Them Played Before this Season—Play Regular Ball Game Every Day and Get Used to Being Under Fire.

BY HOWARD W. ANGUS.

CLAREMONT, Jan. 21.—The Pomona variety looks as much like a ball club as a Mississippi flatboat looks like the Mauritania, but it plays baseball—the kind that is full of fight and ginger and inside ball.

Harry Stewart has been doing a sort of "balling" stunt. He has taken men that would not have been considered at Occidental or U.C. and made a team out of them.

FOUR YEARS. Four of the men who will face the Tigers have played ball before. They are Bergstrom, the shortstop; Gray, the center fielder; Meade, the catcher, and the pitcher, Meade. Meade is catching for the first time; he was a fielder. Staples is a comeback. Capt. Youngman's leg will not permit him to play tomorrow, unless it improves wonderfully in the next twenty-four hours.

All the others—Cres at first, Conley at second, Marchant at third, and Oliver and Brown, fielders—know nothing about baseball when the men began. The latter two were hit by the easy grace of finished players, but they got over everything and got it. They seem to have caught on to inside ball. They made the right play invariably. And from what Damore's All-stars say they play their best in a game.

PRACTICE. The reason for this seems to be that they have learned the baseball they know by playing it. Every practice is a game. Stewart has even made the batting practice as hard as the going to bat under fire as possible. The team reported for practice at 1 o'clock today. Stewart went out on to the mound and put Meade behind the bat. The scrubs formed a team behind him. There was even an umpire. The Huns went to bat in regular batting order.

Stewart didn't dish straight balls up them. He got them out every one. At least half of the balls he threw were spitters. He was getting them ready for Wayne Ball. Besides he hit as quiet as a mouse and drank in the first time up the men took two hits. The second time up they bunted. The third time up they got on base and worked as if they were in a game. They sacrificed the man on first to second. When they got him there they pulled the Huns down.

AWKWARD. Then they went out into the field for practice. With the exception of Bergstrom at shortstop they all looked awkward. Every time the Huns hit a hot smash certain. But they got it every time. Conley, at second, hit a long, loose-jointed fellow, in almost any game. One he threw to Bergstrom at short while he was still in the air. Cres, the first baseman, isn't especially graceful, but he has a reach that grabs anything within his grasp.

Stewart says that they have caught the signals as fast as any squad he ever handled. They did not have a practice game today for the first time. Stewart took charge. But he says that they did not blow. He cited the all-star game as an example. "They were going up against Kelly," he said, "who has stuff and speed. He is better than either Ball or Montie. I told them that they had to come too fast for them to swing, so to choke their bats and just meet it." They got over this. Not one of them was anything like a two-bagger. All were just over the infield and inside of the outfield. They won the game. Besides they backed up Staples every minute.

After dinner Stewart takes the team to a lecture-room and talks over the game with them. Every morning they are lined up on a bench and the manager walked up and down in front of us telling us what we should have done the day before. It worked then, and is working now.

That is how the Huns learned baseball. Staples, the Hun pitcher, who will face the Tigers tomorrow, is a small, delicate-looking boy. He has control and a head. His mound is nothing marvelous, his curve ball has not a terrific break. But he can put it where he wants to and change it back. Bell, the other pitcher, is a fat boy with plenty of stuff and no change of control.

Went. Scribes must play baseball.

WILL BE BARRED UNLESS THEY LABOR.

Wolverton Says no Writers Get in the Seal Training Camp Unless They Get Out and Train Exactly as the Ball Players Do—There Should be Some Speed Show.

(BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 21.—Practically one month from now the Seal will be gathering for the annual spring training that always precedes the regular season. Harry Wolverton has set Wednesday, February 24, as the day on which the members of his club are to assemble at Boyes Springs. This means the team will have practically one week in which to get into shape for the opening of the White Sox game that is scheduled with San Francisco on Friday, March 4.

It is none too much time, but Wolverton is a hustler and speed in training will be the word at the training camp from the moment the players are on the job. An afternoon workout is scheduled for opening day, and after that it will be a steady grind, with a programme of work forenoon and afternoon.

As to the newspaper men who naturally follow the fortunes of the seals in camp, Wolverton says they will be barred from the grounds unless they appear in uniforms and do their part of the work.

GRANT SWAMPS SELMA SEXTETTE.

TWO LONELY POINTS ALL THAT THE LOSERS COULD GATHER.

The Grant school girls basketball team of Hollywood scored an overwhelming victory over the team representing Selma school yesterday afternoon, the final count reading 43 to 3 in favor of Coach May's sextette.

The team work of the Grant team, coupled with the exceptionally fine individual play of Coach May's sextette, carried the day for the winners and the two points scored by Selma just about show the relative merits of the two teams.

PLATT ADAMS EXONERATED.

(BY A. P. MURPHY WIRE.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—Platt Adams, Olympic champion in the standing high jump, was fully exonerated of charges of professionalism in an announcement tonight by the Registration Committee of the Amateur Athletic Union.

Adams, who is a member of the New York Athletic Club, was charged with selling trophies he had won.

HARRY STEWART ATTENDS CLASS.

COACHES HUNS AND GETS AN EDUCATION.

THINKS THAT Astronomy is a Great Sport and is Going to Steer the Huns When the Come Back and Spring All His New Scientific Words Upon Them.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

CLAREMONT, Jan. 21.—Harry Stewart is getting a college education on the spur. The ex-Coast League writer is coaching baseball at Pomona College and attending every class he hears about. He has nothing to do in the morning, so he goes around to class with the men on his team and diagnoses history, economics and astronomy with them.

"I'm getting a special education," said Stewart. "I would be a boob if I didn't take advantage of this chance. I slip into class with the fellows and sit as quiet as a mouse and drink in everything. The professors have been very good. Nobody has made me get out yet. But if the college doesn't mind me a bit it is sure to be a good thing. Astronomy is the most interesting subject. I know what stars are stars. You know, some stars aren't stars at all. I find that what I thought was the high dipper is Orion and that my small dipper was the Pleiades. I have them straightened out now."

"Did you ever hear of a satellite? That's the high-brow name for a moon. But it all depends on the man. There is one of our Pomona graduates who is a carpenter, but most of them are somewhere."

"The year used to begin on March 25. We don't know whether we ought to change it back or not. Anyway, there are 365 1/4 days in every year. Leap year just evened things up."

"A college education is a mighty fine thing. But it all depends on the man. There is one of our Pomona graduates who is a carpenter, but most of them are somewhere."

"Say, it's going to be great when I spring all this learning on my friends," thinks Harry Stewart.

SMITH WINNER AT VOORHIES.

ROSE FINISHES ON SHORT END OF SCORE IN AMATEUR TOURNAMENT.

Smith won from Rose the last game of the week in the Voorhies amateur three-cushion billiard tournament last evening, doing 35 points to 17, with high run of 4.

Next week's series of four games commences on Monday night.

NEW DISTANCE RECORD MADE.

(BY A. P. MURPHY WIRE.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—A hydro-aeroplane driven by Lawrence Perry and carrying Alan R. Hawley, president of the Aero Club of America, set a new record for distance when it was said to be a new record when it flew from the Brooklyn navy yard to Osmung, a distance of sixty miles, in an hour and twenty-two minutes.

The previous record for duration and distance with a passenger was held by G. Suro of San Francisco.

MODY WANTS CARL FLICK FOR KEYSTONE.

Trying to Buy Release from New Orleans so Sign with Angels—Gardner May Play First Base—Hogan Says Organized Baseball Has Only One to Fight.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

ANNOUNCED announced that he had secured the release of Carl Flick from the New Orleans team, and had the man all ready to sign with the Angels.

His son, the late Matty McVickers, was one of the best known pitchers in the country a decade ago.

Did probably have seen more ball games than any other living human being.

"Bonnie" Reese, just celebrated for his ability to repair damaged ball players, is here for the winter.

Dr. Reese is not here seeking any misplaced ligaments which he may adjust, but to inhale the climate and view the sights. He will conduct himself the same as any other tourist, although he might pause long enough in his touring to relieve a baseball athlete in distress.

Dr. Reese has cured many cases that regular physicians and surgeons have pronounced hopeless, and always by a simple twist of the wrist. His probability is the greatest bone and muscle savant in the country, and his home in Youngstown, O., is annually the scene of many broken up baseball athletes.

Reese, as I understand his system, does not resort to drugs, saws, knives, leeches or other odd tools in his operations. If a man's biceps have become twisted or tied in a bow knot, or his collar-bone has slipped around on the back side of his neck, Reese simply grasps the same and returns it to its rightful position.

The only thing that he can't fix about a ball player is his head. He has never found a way to reduce solid ivory.

The peculiar case of Speed McDonnell continues to excite considerable interest and comment.

So many conflicting rumors have been issued from baseball headquarters that it is hard to tell exactly what will happen to Speed.

It was stated that McDonnell had been turned over to Salt Lake. This was promptly denied.

Then it was heralded broadcast and elsewhere that Salt Lake had decided that it couldn't use McDonnell, the same being denied the following day.

Next, Speed is found listed as an Angel possibility.

The latest is that he may remain a Tiger.

Johnny Kane is planning to parboil himself at Murcia Springs for a month or so, starting next Monday.

Kane has been taking excellent care of himself this winter, and really doesn't need to poach himself, but he enjoys dispersing himself in liquid form, and figures that a month at the springs, with hunting and hill climbing on the side, will tend to harden the muscles and prolong life.

With the ball players returning to town, Hap is doing a brisk business at his spring-street billiard parlor. The cash register has suddenly become imbued with so much activity that he is on the verge of reconsidering his decision to sell out Hogan yesterday delivered the last of the 1915 contracts into the hands of the postman, and is now awaiting results. He and President Slater do not anticipate any hold-outs.

E. J. Finney, who has been umpiring in the Imperial Valley League, is back in Los Angeles, and yesterday put in an appearance at baseball headquarters. Ed predicts a good season for himself.

Charley Arbogast, manager of the Imperial club, is here in quest of an outfielder to replace Earl Maggett, who resigned with Clarence Brooks along last Monday. Arbogast has signed McClain for the job left vacant by Brooks, but has not yet been able to land a successor to Maggett.

Walter Nagle, the wise, angular gentleman who for many years wore an Angel uniform, yesterday viewed the scenes of his former conquests. Nagle has grown a mustache, and is now the Frank Wiggins of Santa Rosa. He draws a regular salary for acting as secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of that city. Nagle is en route to San Diego, there to mingle with other famous chamber of commerce secretaries.

RITCHIE TO MAKE WEIGHT.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 21.—While Ritchie is willing to make weight concession to Freddie Welsh in order to secure the promised ten-round bout with the present lightweight title-holder in New York, the only hitch was as to whether Ritchie would agree to make 115 pounds at 2 o'clock on the afternoon of the fight.

At the outset, Ritchie refused to do better than catchweights. He capitulated yesterday, however, and wired Promoter Johnson, he would take the match under the stipulated conditions. It is expected that New York will close at once for a match to take place about February 26. The Californian is to receive $1000 for his end.

Four Walks Combined with a Muff and a Home Run by Litchi, gave Caliente Five Runs and the Game in the Opening Inning. Williams Heaves Well.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 21.—Gipe allowed four walks in the first inning, and the gift, combined with a best of Schmidt's high fly by Meusel and a home run by Litchi, gave Caliente five scores and the game, today. Gipe calmed down afterward and held the visitors safe.

A homer by Alexander gave El Centro its first score in the fifth, and in the seventh Barward doubled and scored on Gardner's single. "Lefty" Williams scattered the five hits which he permitted and allowed but one walk.

EDDIE COLLINS LOST TO FEDS BY A PHONE CALL.

W HAT is supposed to be the inside story of how the Federal League narrowly missed getting Eddie Collins before Charley Comiskey grabbed him has just leaked out.

Collins is now safely anchored to the White Sox at a fancy salary by a new model non-adjustable contract. But, according to the story that President Gilmore tells on himself, the star little second baseman would have gone over to the Feds but for the failure of Hal Chase to send an important telephone message.

The Feds got after Collins early last season, but he refused to talk business with them at that time. He did not discourage them, however, and Gilmore did not abandon his hope of landing him. He realized Collins would be a great drawing card, and as it became apparent that Collins was going to join the Athletics as the most valuable man to his club in the league, Gilmore's desire to get him increased.

The incident by which he was lost occurred in Chicago when the Athletics were there on their last trip of the season. Collins' contract with the Athletics was then nearly up, and in addition he had assumed a belligerent attitude because he realized that he would not be able to get any more money from Connie Mack. Collins had not been making any himself.

Gilmore got hold of Collins and made an engagement to meet him. They had a long talk, and Gilmore made Collins an offer that the second baseball player would be a great drawing card, and as it became apparent that Collins was going to join the Athletics as the most valuable man to his club in the league, Gilmore's desire to get him increased.

AT THE STAGE DOOR

by Grace Kingsley

You'd never think, to see Billy Van, drinking the sporty "milkies" in "books," at the Orpheum, that his hobby was dairies and pure milk, and that he knows all about the relative whiteness of different sorts of little curd microbes and long, straight, serious-faced microbes, and that he writes articles for the "Gentleman Farmer."

Such is the case, however, and he means to stop piffing very soon, and devote himself to his dairy business in Van Harbor, N. H., where he has all sorts of sanitary comforts and conveniences to suit the various temperaments of his cows. He can quote all kinds of statistics about the death rate of children from impure milk, and knows all the hard scientific names for milk and things. Seriously, Mr. Van is considered an authority on the breeding of cattle and the care of dairies, owns a great model plant in Van Harbor, and the real reason which brought him to the Coast was his appointment, by the State Dairy Commission to investigate dairies in California.

The noted comedian intends to leave the stage at the end of the present season, and later intends buying a ranch and take up dairying in California.

Following his present engagement he will attend a meeting of scientific agriculturists and cattle breeders at Sacramento.

Alfred Bergen, the Orpheum baritone, is another idealist. Mr. Bergen's hobby is a great school for training young people to choral work. He did this work at Valparaiso University, four years ago, with great success, and is anxious to again occupy some similar position. Ultimately, however, he wishes a grand opera career, and has already received an offer from the Metropolitan Grand Opera Company.

Myths.

The story of the Nautch girl which Miss St. Denis has woven into a dance, to be given at her Friday and Saturday matinees, is a monstrosity. It was gleaned by her from old Hindoo translations, from pictures, from bits of tradition handed down, and from stories told Miss St. Denis by Hindoos in this country. Her ornaments are those worn by a famous Nautch dancer.

"The Nautch Girl" is said to be the most beautiful and interesting dance which Miss St. Denis gives.

Texas Guinan returns to Los Angeles in a few weeks, heading "The Whirl of the World," a big spectacular musical comedy, which will play the Majestic.

Welcome Week.

Marcus Loeb is due to arrive in the city today or tomorrow.

Ancient History.

When Anna Wheaton, one of the stars of the Anderson Players, was a child of ten, she played in friends Adams's company, with "Peter Pan." "We all worshiped Miss Adams," said Miss Wheaton. "There were three of us little girls. At Christmas, Miss Adams always remembered all her company and every stage hand, with a gift. We girls knew this, and when Christmas came, we waited eagerly for Santa Claus to appear. Afternoon came, and the other two girls got lovely presents. I didn't get any. As it came time to dress for the play, I crept up to my dressing-room, and was crying my eyes out, thinking I had been forgotten, when there came a soft tap at my door, and there stood Maude Adams with her eyes shining, holding out a beautiful little jewel case containing a lovely brooch. My present had come late, and to atone Miss Adams had climbed those three flights of stairs herself, to bestow her gift."

Sounds Queer.

Frank Mandel, author of "The Lady We Love," is one of the brightest playwrights and one of the worst prose agents of the age.

It's no use your trying to tell him the good points in his plays. He at once points out to you, with painful earnestness, how the scene you liked so much between Kate and her lover really wasn't a good scene at all; that Kate is overdrawn and unnatural, and her lover a stick.

The other day an important eastern publication wanted an interview and sent their representative to Mr. Mandel. The reporter brought along a stenographer, and after vainly trying to get Mr. Mandel to say something good for himself, said: "Well, I'll leave you here with the stenographer. Just dictate 1500 words." He came back in an hour to find Mr. Mandel reading a paper, patiently awaiting the reporter's return. He had dictated just ten lines!

Great Stuff.

The first run of the film, "A Fool There Was," with Theda Bara as the Vampire, took place at Miller's Theater last night.

The place is one gripping in its intensity and exceedingly sensational in treatment. Theda Bara's acting as the Vampire, seductive, seductive, showing no method to bring her lovers to her feet, is wonderful. Her face is one of the most expressive on the screen. It is only with angry passion at one moment, the next second soft and beautiful with allurements. Edward Jones, the Fool, depicted most faithfully the strong, virile man, gradually sapped of all beauty, honor and strength, and at last dying a victim of the vampire's wiles.

Coming Again.

Manager Oliver Morosco is in receipt of a letter from the "Peg o' My Heart" manager in London, stating

Lucretia Del Valle,

The fascinating Los Angeles girl, who will again be a feature of the Mission Play.

Johnson Now with Angels

that Lucretia Taylor followed the order to close the theater at night, but has been giving daily two morning and one afternoon performances, for the past twenty weeks, with an average business of $2000 per week.

The piece is shortly to be shown at the Majestic here, with Peggy O'Neill in the leading role.

Married.

Herbert Williams and Hilda Wolf, at the Orpheum, are really Mr. and Mrs. Williams. And there's a small sweet William named Doris. Doris is 4, but inherits a lot of her dad's musical talent, already playing some of his songs by ear.

She's a great little dancer, too, and can rag the old rag to shreds.

Much Sadness.

Mr. Frankenstein, leader of the Orpheum orchestra, groans in spirit as he views the heavy work of "Road-show" week.

Particularly "blue Monday," with rehearsal.

Frankenstein is really Dr. Frankenstein, you know, and he says they're just a bunch of patients, those three first newcomers.

"First they diagnose their troubles," he says, "and usually all wrong. The cello means in sympathy, and the cornet toots in sorrow. Then I perform the operations, major and minor, lopping off a bar here and a dance number there. By afternoon the patients have come out of the anesthetic and are dazed nicely, and by night they're fully recovered, with all the acts working in health and harmony."

Going East.

Frederic Thompson, who has been connected with the Laasy Company as director, and has just finished "The Country Boy," leaves today for New York, where he has offers both to return to the stage and take up motion-picture work.

Hullo, Sam.

Manager Sam Harris of the Western States Vaudeville Association, which books the Hippodrome attractions, is to be in the city tomorrow.

Haw! Haw!

Beatrice Nichols of the Burbank company is in receipt of a letter from Tom McLarnie, who is playing "The Country Boy," in Chicago, saying that the other day he received an invitation from some unknown admirer: "Come to tea with us tomorrow afternoon. Can a man with a name like McLarnie play a German like a subject of the Kaiser? Come, let us see how you really look."

ABERDEEN IN NORTHWESTERN.

(BY A. F. NIGHT WIRE.)

ABERDEEN (Wash.) Jan. 21.—Aberdeen re-entered the Northwestern Baseball League today, when J. S. Barnes signed over the Ballard (Wash.) franchise to A. H. Griffin and P. A. Bertrand, who will conduct the Aberdeen club.

ILLINOIS WON'T GET BOXING LAW.

(BY A. F. NIGHT WIRE.)

SPRINGFIELD (Ill.) Jan. 21.—Prospects are not good for the passage at this session of the Legislature of a bill to legalize boxing in Illinois and to create a State Boxing Commission, according to sportsmen interested in such a measure.

While most of the Chicago representation in the Assembly is said to be favorable to such a bill, considerable opposition is being heard from down State members and indications are that a bill would be contested in both houses.

ANGELS AFTER NAP CATCHER.

The Los Angeles club hopes to land John Dander, catcher of the Cleveland Americans. Should Cleveland decide to let Dander go back to the minors, Dillon will put in a bid for his services. Cap has been watching the youngster's work in the Imperial Valley, and was visibly impressed.

Dander, who is a local boy, broke into the majors at the tender age of 17. Cleveland took him on the recommendation of Ivan Olson two years ago. He is a catcher of exceptional promise.

FOREIGNERS IN RIVERSIDE POLO.

FRENCH AND AUSTRALIAN TEAM ON LISTS.

Six Teams are Entered to Date—Coronado, Cooperstown, Midwest, Chicago, Riverside and Pasadena. Santa Barbara and San Mateo Expected Soon.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

RIVERSIDE, Jan. 21.—Added interest was given to the plans for the big polo tournament to be played in this city on the week of January 29-February 6, when it was announced today that, in addition to the American teams already entered, there was an excellent chance to give it an international turn by a foreign entry, a team made up of French and Australian players, who are now on the Coast.

Definite entry was made today by Dr. E. T. Malby for a Pasadena team, which makes six teams entered to date—the Cooperstown (N. Y.) team, American champions; the Chicago team, All-Star Midwest team, Coronado and Riverside. It is expected that San Mateo and Santa Barbara will enter before the end of the week. Entries will close on Monday, the 25th.

Interest is growing daily in the tournament, and the attempt of the Riverside Polo Club to popularize the game is given every promise of success. Manager Linard of the Maryland and Huntington hotels of Pasadena has arranged to charter a special parlor car over the Pacific Electric for his guests for at least one day during the tournament, Saturday, February 6, the last day of the tournament, has already been set aside, and is being advertised as "Los Angeles Day," and will bring a special trainload of Angelenos over the Salt Lake, and another day will be reserved as "Orange Short Day" for the San Diego-county people.

Social events will add to the week's pleasures for the city's guests, as the Glenwood Mission Inn has planned dances for both Saturday night and on Wednesday night, and a smoker for the players will be given during the week at the Victoria Club. These and other evening functions will be in addition to the teas served every afternoon at the Polo Club House.

An interesting practice game has been planned for tomorrow afternoon, when the Pasadena team, Mrs. L. W. Brown, wife of the president of the club, will play a team selected by Mrs. H. Gordon Patten, wife of the secretary. The Pasadena team will comprise Hugh Drury, E. Pedley, A. Urmeyer and Robert Lee Bettner; Mrs. Patten's will be H. G. Patten, Frank Hudson, H. Lett and Dr. E. T. Malby. Mrs. George L. Winterbotham will serve tea.

With the French.

LOS ANGELES MAN FIGHTING.

A. C. FREEMAN WITH FRENCH AMBULANCE CORPS.

British Army Rejected Him Because of Defective Eyesight, so He Goes to Paris and Joins Ambulance Corps—Believes He is Doing More Good than He Would as a Soldier.

Archibald C. Freeman, formerly a Lieutenant in Troop D, N.G.C., and a well-known Los Angeles sportsman, is now serving in a French ambulance corps at Paris, caring for the wounded of the great war.

In a letter received yesterday by his father, Dr. Freeman, at Centinella, Archie told of his desire to enter the British army, his rejection on account of the defective sight of his right eye, the subsequent promise of a commission in the British cavalry, and his final disappointment through the decision of the military authorities of the United Kingdom to send no more cavalry to the continent.

Having been convinced from his home near the Bois de Boulogne during the mighty swoop of the German army toward Paris, Archie took his wife to England and made the efforts mentioned to secure active service with British arms.

After some months of delay his aspirations were defeated, and he accepted the invitation of his friend, Dr. Gros, to return to Paris and enter his ambulance corps. The Canadian-American now feels that he is doing more good than he might otherwise have accomplished at the front. A vivid illustration of war's severed relations lies in the fact related in The Times a few months since, that Archie had been chosen to take part in the estate of a Hungarian friend, whom it would now be treachery to recognize, and whose life he might have been compelled to take had he found the service he sought.

BOER RODEL IS FLATTENED OUT.

(BY A. F. NIGHT WIRE.)

JOPLIN (Mo.) Jan. 21.—George Rodel, Boer heavyweight, was knocked out by Carl Morris of Sapulpa, Okla., in the third round of a scheduled fifteen-round bout here tonight.

Morris weighed 225 pounds and Rodel 205.

How to Dress

If every woman tried to dress like the models shown in the average fashion magazine, she would look like a Futurist or a Cubist painting.

The attempts of a few are responsible for the queerly-dressed creatures which we occasionally see on prominent thoroughfares.

The intelligent woman who cares about her appearance wants to be fashionably yet tastefully and exclusively gowned.

Fortunately, there is a publication which will aid her—The Woman's Home Companion.

The fashion models in this magazine are not fantastic. They do not look like creatures which belong in a zoo or a museum.

They look like real human beings, real flesh and blood women—women who are really pleasing to the eye.

Every woman would be attractive in appearance if she made her gowns according to the designs and patterns furnished by the Companion.

The American Magazine

The American Magazine is the kind of magazine that nobody ever hides in a drawer. It is edited by responsible people, who have children of their own to bring up—edited by people who know that the best and even the most exciting reading matter in all the world is pure—edited by people of brains and character, who realize that nastiness is only a poor substitute for stupidity.

The American Magazine, with all its humor, its facts, its new ideas, its stories and its wonderful pictures, is one of the rarest and most significant products of present day American life. It is, in fact, THE American Magazine.

THE TIMES

By exclusive arrangement with the publishers, The Times is enabled to offer its readers, old or new, the following exceptionally liberal subscription proposition. Any subscriber, old or new, can get The Times, the Woman's Home Companion and the American Magazine, by signing a twelve months' subscription contract for the Daily and Sunday Times and paying therefor only 80 cents per month.

No other newspaper attempts to cover the home field—Los Angeles, Southern California, the Pacific Coast and the Great Southwest—as thoroughly and completely as does The Times, which is the only paper in the Pacific Southwest that daily prints a full and complete Associated Press report.

These comprehensive and authentic reports are of special importance at this time because of the great European war. The Associated Press is the world's greatest news-gathering organization; and its daily cable reports from Europe, which are trustworthy and impartial, show the real facts concerning the activities of the various armies.

In addition to the service of the Associated Press, THE TIMES has special correspondents of its own in the principal centers of population of America and Europe, and it daily prints every happening of importance on the civilized globe, including news of the political, religious, social and business life of the people of all foreign lands.

For further particulars inquire of any Times agent or phone The Times office—Main 8200—Home 10391, The Times-Mirror Company, Times Bldg., 1st and Broadway.

After Elk Hills Lands for Their Value.

History States in His Opening Argument.

Continuing testimony that the value of the entire Elk Hills is not equal to the cost of the transcript of the evidence brought by the government against the Southern Pacific Company to have declared the land to be of no value.

The Southern Pacific Corporation is spending hundreds of thousands of dollars to clear some of its former land.

Charles Levers began his argument before Judge in the United States District Court.

BOUQUETS TO THE MIDWINTER

The Big Achievement of the world's newspaper publication.—[Oakland Enquirer.]

No newspaper ever published anything in the same class with the Midwinter Number of the Los Angeles Times.—[Lawton Journal.]

The best thing ever achieved by Gen. Otis, the foremost newspaper publisher of his time.—[Orange County Weekly Tribune.]

Exceeding in size, quality of reading matter and illustration and decorative work anything of the kind ever before issued by any newspaper, the Annual Midwinter Edition of the Los Angeles Daily Times, which is now being widely circulated, constitutes the most comprehensive review of conditions in Southern California and guide to the great expeditions that has ever been compiled.—[Colton Courier.]

In scenery, in climate and in novelty, Southern California is the delight of all visitors, and Los Angeles is the chief city of that section and "The Times" (Gen. Otis's paper) its greatest newspaper.—[Hartford Courant.]

The edition is a masterpiece of the color printer's art and worthy of the world-famous editor of The Times, Gen. Harrison Gray Otis.—[Evansville Courier-Journal.]

The Los Angeles Times each year gets out a better annual number than the year before. It hardly seems possible that the Midwinter edition of this winter can be improved on but it probably will be. It is a mighty factor in giving Eastern readers some idea of the wonderful attractions, prospects and promise of Southern California. Best of all, the statistics bear the imprint of careful, honest investigation. The reader of the Atlantic Coast or Middle West may exclaim, "Oh, it is too good to be true," still as he or she reads, the impression is forced home that it is true and the wonderful display of pictures, evidently from actual photographs, proves conclusively that such fairland of beauty and El Dorado of rich opportunity is a fact.—[St. Louis Herald.]

One of the Southern California annual crops that gets increasingly bigger and better is the Midwinter Number of the Los Angeles Times. This is always issued on New Year's, and yesterday the number was of a size and quality far exceeding former notable efforts.—[Riverside Press.]

To the Easterner this annual number will be as interesting as the Arabian Nights. There is not another newspaper in the world that turns out such a fine advertisement of its own country as does the Los Angeles Times, not only in the Midwinter Number, but every day in the year.—[Covina Argus.]

It is generally conceded that the Midwinter Number of the Los Angeles Times for 1915 beats anything of the kind ever issued in the world. It is the broadest, most comprehensive, most skillfully handled of the special numbers ever published by The Times and is the crowning glory of the newspaper career of the editor of The Times, Gen. Harrison Gray Otis.

Aside from the journalistic and artistic merits of the number, it has beaten all records as a business getter, containing over $50,000 worth of advertising—think of that in one newspaper issue—and attaining a sale of 200,000 copies.

The advertising end of the Midwinter was under the direction of Mr. Jacob Baum and Mr. Leo Altman. The "Whole Southwest" section was prepared under the direction of Mr. C. F. Hayden, who contributed several of the most important features to the number.

Every number that is sent east will be a great advertisement for California and as this State is to have two fairs this year, tens of thousands of copies of this great newspaper should be forwarded to all parts of the East by private individuals, chambers of commerce, boards of trade and other organized bodies.—[Fullerton Daily Tribune.]

The Los Angeles Times, of which Gen. Harrison Gray Otis is president and general manager, issues the first of every January an annual edition which it calls its "Midwinter Number," and which, by reason of its size and attractiveness and mirroring such a picturesque section of the country, has become famous not only in this Republic but in Europe as well.—[Houston Daily Post.]

The Midwinter Number of the Los Angeles Times for this winter will prove the statement of The Times that it is the biggest annual edition the world has ever seen. There are 224 pages of it, dealing with all the varied industries, the resources and the opportunities for the homeseeker to be found in the great Southwest. And from an artistic viewpoint it is also a fine production. Many thousands of copies of this publication will be sent out to people in other States and will be read by them with much more than ordinary interest.—[Tulare Register.]

Even as 1915 has been looked forward to for years as the "peak" in the history of the Pacific Coast, so the 1915 Midwinter Number of the Los Angeles Times is the "peak" of all anniversary numbers of that publication. The Los Angeles Times Midwinter Number is the thing that has made New Year's day notable on the Coast. But, this year The Times has surpassed itself. Over 200 pages go back East to proclaim the beauties, wonders and glories of Southern California in particular, and the Pacific Coast in general.—[Ontario Report.]

OUT OF THE NORTHLAND.

The party includes men and women prominent in all phases of the life of the great copper-producing State.

Special excursion parties have been run from Butte to this city for some winters past by the Salt Lake. The present party, however, is by far the largest that ever left Montana for the Southland. The tickets of members of the party are good for sojourns here until March 20.

REPORT OF COLLECTOR.

The expenses of collecting were $21,672.71, and the number of employees, 22. The value of imports, dutiable, was $411,283; free of duty, $1,042,491; total, $1,453,774. AFTER FIVE YEARS HE IS CAPTURED.

MAN WANTED ON BAD CHECK CHARGE—HAD METHOD ALL HIS OWN.

A checkered career covering a period of five years and almost the entire United States was brought to an abrupt end yesterday when Nick Harris arrested J. W. Carrothers of Brockton, Mass., on a charge of worthless check passing.

Harris had to be the peer of all bad-check passers, Carrothers has for the last year confined his operations to Los Angeles and parts of Arizona, where the police estimate that he has cleaned up in the neighborhood of $20,000, all by means of worthless checks. His method is not that of the ordinary "down and out" who passes a worthless check on a local bank, but according to evidence in the hands of the police, Carrothers has had all of his checks printed on good stationary and on banks that do not exist. Five of these checks were found in his possession when he was arrested in the act of passing one of his own manufacture on a downtown department store.

In his operations he has posed as the manager of several prominent actresses and as the owner of one of the largest automobile plants in the United States. Suave and with the manner of a polished gentleman, it was no hard matter for Carrothers to present his checks and have them cashed. In each instance he used an alias. The check on which he was arrested, bears the name of W. S. Collins, which Carrothers freely admits does not exist, nor the bank on which it is drawn. Following his arrest, it was learned that he had been arrested in Springfield, Mass., on a similar charge and was on two-year probation.

Proposed ordinance is to hold up approval of Ordinance Until Man Removed is Reinstated—Development May Come Today When Subject is to be Discussed.

Charles E. Mohler is no longer chief engineer of the railroad department of the Board of Public Utilities. His hold on the $209-a-month job was ended at office-closing time last evening. His record is a remarkable one. In that he was enabled to hold onto the job for almost seven months after it was decided that the Board of Public Utilities could get along without his services, and for many weeks after it had taken formal action temporarily abolishing the office.

After many quibbles and the pulling of all possible strings by Mr. Mohler's Socialist friends, some of the women's clubs and the Municipal League, in order to hold Mr. Mohler on the job, the Board of Public Utilities finally asserted its charter rights, and the result is that the office of chief engineer of the railroad department is vacant. Councilman Roberts, who has led the campaign to hold the position for Mr. Mohler, was expected to make his grand effort in the Council session yesterday to secure the reinstatement of the removed man—but he fell down on the job.

The salary ordinance for the utilities board's employees, which has been hanging on unapproved for nearly seven months—because of the middle of Mr. Mohler—was presented before the City Council yesterday. It was at that time that Mr. Roberts was expected to make his move, but the ordinance was simply referred to the Public Utilities Committee of the Council, of which Mr. Roberts is chairman.

This committee will meet this afternoon. At that time whatever further steps are to be taken on behalf of the man removed are expected to develop. It is understood that Mr. Roberts' program will be to try to secure a withholding of the approval of the salary ordinance until such time as the utilities board will agree to reinstate Mr. Mohler.

This will mean that ten of the employees of the board will have no provision made for the payment of their salaries except through the budget ordinance. Whether this is sufficient authority upon which the City Auditor may approve demands and issue warrants is a moot question.

This situation would also leave no provision for a salary for the railroad engineer, and the logical result would be that this work would devolve upon the president of the board, A. W. Wright, which is just the situation that Mr. Roberts wants to avoid.

The Executive Committee of the Municipal League yesterday sent to the commission a resolution protesting against putting into effect of the board's plan to place Mr. Wright, now president of the board, at the head of the railroad department. This says: "Resolved, that in the opinion of this committee, any scheme by which a subordinate is to be removed in pursuance of prearranged plan among members of the board appointing him, whereby one of the members of the board is to resign and be appointed to such subordinate position, is wrong in principle, and is a device which is liable to abuses of the gravest character. For that reason this committee protests against such proposed plan being carried out."

THIRD-STREET GRADE.
DIFFERENCE OF OPINION.

A spirited hearing was given before the Public Works Committee of the City Council on the subject of abandoning proceedings for paving of Third street, between Vermont and Western avenues. Action was deferred one week.

In the vicinity of Third and Catalina streets there is a deep depression. If this is filled by the street railway company it will cut down the costs to the assessment district about $20,000. At some points the fill would be about thirteen feet above adjoining properties. Some of the property owners want the fill made; others want the street improved on lines conforming to the natural conditions. During the week the railroad officials are to be interviewed to determine whether they will undertake the filling, so as to bring the tracks to grade. If the agreement is reached, a strong effort will be made to secure abandonment of proceedings.

NEW CLINIC.

FOR TUBERCULAR TREATMENT.
Health Commissioner Powers announced yesterday that he is preparing to open a new tuberculosis clinic at Ninth and Wilcox streets to materially assist in caring for deserving indigent tubercular patients, and will provide for care being given such patients each day.

The quarters to be used for the clinic are being fitted up by the Society for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis and Dr. Brown will devote her entire time to this clinic and another located at No. 717 North Broadway. The health department of the city will provide medicine and other supplies needed, as well as the services of one of the assistant health commissioners during the clinic hours to make physical examinations and give treatments. Where the patient cannot provide himself with milk and eggs, these will be supplied through the clinic.

Dr. Powers says of the new clinic: "In this clinic all the latest developments in treating tuberculosis will be applied and it is felt that much will be done toward diminishing the spread of the disease through instructions as to the proper destruction of sputum, etc., and through home calls by the city nurse, who will go from the clinics to the homes to observe whether or not the instructions are being carried out, and assist wherever possible."

CONDITIONAL PERMIT.

SEWAGE DISPOSAL PLANT.
The Board of Public Works yesterday received notice from Dr. Donald H. Currie, secretary of the State Board of Health, that the Executive Committee of the board has approved a conditional permit for the installation of the sewage disposal system for the Brent-street district in East Wilmington. The formal approval of the board, however, will not be given until February 6.

CITY WILL DO IT.

COLLECTION OF RUBBISH.
Although the Board of Public Works has received an offer from the Metropolitan Contracting Company to make collection of cans and non-combustible material at the rate of $4.00 per team, wagon and driver for each day, it has decided that the best interests of the city will be served by handling the work itself.

STREETS AND ALLEYS.

IMPROVEMENT PROCEEDINGS.
The City Engineer has introduced ordinances of intention for public improvements that include the paving of Ardmore avenue from Rosewood to Oakwood avenues; paving of the alley first south of Twenty-fifth street, from Gramercy place to Cimarron street; grading, oiling, curbing, sidewalk and concrete steps for Curran street, between Echo Park avenue and Van Ness street; paving with asphalt blocks of Olive street, between Temple and Court streets; asphalt paving of Ord street, between San Fernando road and North Broadway; and a portion of New High street; bitulithic pavement for Fifteenth street, from Figueroa to Georgia streets; paving of alley first south of Washington street, between Compton avenue and first alley east; grading, oiling, curbing, sidewalk and gutters for Viola street and Lucetta avenue improvement district.

LOS ANGELES DAY.

AT NORTHERN EXPOSITION.
Mayor Rose received notification yesterday from Hollis E. Cooley, chief of special exercises for the Panama-Pacific Exposition, that he has designated June 21 as "Los Angeles day" at the exposition.

JUDGE TELLS MOTHER HOW TO GET HER CHILD.

Granted Divorce and Custody of Their Son, She Goes to Take Him from Her Husband—The Child Draws Back and Mother Loses Opportunity.

"The next time you get a chance like that, take it," Judge Monroe cautioned Mrs. Christina E. Ehrenstrom, the young wife of Gustave von R. Ehrenstrom, who won a decree of divorce yesterday on the ground of desertion. The remark referred to a day recently when the couple were in court with their son, Gustave, aged 8. The boy was awarded to the custody of his mother.

"Go and take him," said the court. Mrs. Ehrenstrom walked swiftly to Gustave and reached out her arms, but the boy did not run to his father. Mrs. Ehrenstrom fell back, crestfallen and her husband left the courtroom with Gustave.

A bench warrant had been issued for Mr. Ehrenstrom on the charge of kidnapping the boy. The court would also have liked to interrogate him with reference to the letter he wrote Attorney Collier, his wife's counsel, stating that Mrs. Ehrenstrom could get a divorce on any plausible ground.

"A good-looking woman," wrote Mr. Ehrenstrom, "don't always tell the truth, which indicated that in her complaint for divorce she was lying with threatening to kill her who was stretching the truth."

THAT TRIANGLE.

The eternal triangle will be the theme of the Bruce divorce trial. The theme of the Bruce divorce trial is the alienation of affections suits which Judge Monroe will try April 6 and 7. The divorce action being heard first and the alienation of affections suit following.

A. C. Bruce is a jeweler, No. 553 South Hill street. He is older than his attractive wife. The third leg of the triangle is B. A. Young, a wealthy property owner, who is charged by Mr. Bruce with winning the affections of Mrs. Bruce. She came back at this time to the divorce trial, alleging extreme cruelty. Judge Monroe will determine the divorce action, and a jury will determine whether or not Mr. Young should pay Mr. Bruce $10,000 damages for the loss of his wife.

Mrs. Bruce says she is unjustly barred with being intimate with another man. Bruce says this other man is Mr. Young, who taught her to smoke cigarettes and to drink. The divorce trial is being held at No. 116 West Eleventh street, the house being owned by Mr. Young. Regular monthly calls to collect the rent made by Mr. Young resulted in complications.

IMPEACHMENT.

PROCEEDINGS STARTED.

The impeachment of the testimony of C. H. Hawn, who sued R. H. Dunlap, a wealthy South Dakota rancher for $50,000 for alienating the affections of Mrs. Hawn, now Mrs. Dunlap, was undertaken by the defense in the trial of the suit before a jury in Judge McCormick's court yesterday. In his testimony, Mr. Hawn stated that Dunlap had been seen at a picnic of South Dakota people in Eastlake park in March, 1915.

Albert B. Brown of this city testified that on that occasion Mr. Dunlap was in Missoula, Mont. Mr. Brown was formerly a clerk in the Federal Land Office at Missoula, and stated that Mr. Dunlap roomed at his house.

Corra Ludwig, a nurse, also contradicted the story of Mrs. Hawn. She testified that she saw Mr. Dunlap at the home of Mrs. Hawn, who described an alleged visit of Mr. Dunlap to the bedroom of Mrs. Hawn. She said that Mrs. Hawn had her hair hanging down her back and wore a kimono. Mr. Dunlap had his coat off.

Mrs. Ludwig said she was present with Mrs. Hawn when Mrs. Dunlap came to the room, and that Mrs. Dunlap was fully dressed and her hair neatly rolled. She did not see Mr. Dunlap.

That he had been the meanest man in the world, and that no man had treated a woman as he had treated his wife, was the testimony of Joseph

EXPERT WITNESS AGAINST CITY SAYS CLIENTS KEPT IN BACK GROUND.

Dr. Ethel Leonard, testifying in the suit of H. A. Hart against the city of Los Angeles, yesterday said that she made tests of Owens River water that were not submitted in evidence and that she had not kept records of all tests. She declared, under cross-examination, that she regarded negative tests as having only relative value, and for that reason had not included in her report many of the bacteriological tests.

Dr. Leonard testified yesterday and day before yesterday concerning the physical and sanitary conditions above and along the aqueduct and pronounced the water impure at various places where observations and tests were made.

In response to queries by Attorney W. B. Madewa she said that she formerly worked under Dr. Powers for the city of Los Angeles, but had never made a survey of a water-bearing area for the purpose of determining its value as a source of supply for a municipality.

She testified that she has been paid at the rate of $10 a day and an additional sum for a report. The per diem arrangement included two trips to Owens Valley and her services as a witness. All her arrangements, she said, were with Attorney Carpenter.

She said that she endeavored to learn from Mr. Carpenter who his clients were, but that he declined to tell her. She was given to understand, she said, that the men who were interested in the case against the city are not politicians.

Three Former Employees in City Prosecutor's Office Discharged by Mayor Will See for Jobs.

Preparations are being made by James Hosick, A. A. McDowell, former deputy City Prosecutors, and F. M. Ling, former clerk in the City Prosecutor's office, to carry their grievances to the Superior Court in an effort to determine whether or not Mayor Rose was within his rights in requesting their resignation under the two-year clause in section 50 of the city charter.

It is the contention of the three men that that section of the charter only applies to the assistant City Prosecutors.

CONGRATULATES HUSBY. HE SECURES DIVORCE.

Mrs. Eugenia M. Swearingin, in the friendliest possible way shook hands with her husband, Luther W. Swearingin, yesterday when he obtained a decree of divorce. It was a congratulatory shake, according to Mrs. Swearingin. Then mother love overcame her, she kissed her daughter, Anna, aged 10, and gave her a kiss, fondled her a little bit and set her down. This was her good-bye.

The case was not contested by Mrs. Swearingin. She was in court but made no defense, saying that she would remain silent as long as nothing developed which injured her.

"THE BELLE."

SHE CAUSES TROUBLE.

A woman known to Mrs. Emma L. Peabody as "the Belle," and alluded to in Mrs. Peabody's separate-maintenance suit as the mysterious woman, caused trouble for the Peabody family, according to the wife. She testified that she met her husband, Roswell F. Peabody, in the Hill-street tunnel one night, and again she observed him at a ball.

Mr. Peabody was alleged to have deserted his wife last January. He was ordered to pay his wife $75 a month until their daughter, Helen, reaches the age of 18, and $10 a month thereafter for the daughter's support.
